

Crystal Reports for Law Enforcement—Level 2

Curiosity Quest

This course is designed to focus on more advanced topics in Crystal Reports. Students will learn a variety of ways to tap CAD, RMS and other law enforcement Databases to create meaningful reports.

6 Sections

Enhancing Reports
Running Total Fields
Using Formulas
Adding Subreports
Creating Cross-tabs
Advanced Charting Techniques

18 Topics

Hiding Report Objects
Watermarks
Bulleted Lists
Hyperlinks
Running Total Fields
Formulas
Conditional Suppression
Filters on Multiple Criteria
Independent Subreport
Linking a Subreport
On-demand Subreports
Editing and Formatting Subreports
Cross-tab reports
Inserting a Cross-tab in a Report
Filtering a Cross-tab
Top N Charting
Editing a Chart
Chart Templates

in 16 hours...

The student should have some experience with Crystal Reports. He or she should be able to open a report, modify a report, and add data using the field explorer.

Curiosity Quest

2010 Crow Canyon Place, Suite 100
San Ramon, California 94583

Phone: 925-824-3122
Fax: 925-968-1342
Email:
ibcurious@curiosityquest.com

Quality Custom Professional Training

Course Outline

Curiosity Quest

21 Exercises

Hours 1-2

Hiding Report Objects
Watermarks
Bulleted Lists
Hyperlinks

Hours 3-4

Running Totals
Formulas

Hours 5-6

Formulas: Grouping

Hours 7-8

Condition Suppression
Filter Multiple Criteria

Hours 9-10

Independent Subreport
Linking a Subreport

Hours 11-12

On-demand Subreport
Adjusting Subreports

Hours 13-14

Cross-tab reports
Inserting a Cross-tab
Filtering a Cross-tab

Hours 15-16

Top N Charting
Editing a Chart
Chart Templates

The actual length of our classes vary with the experience of our students and the number of questions we receive. We can and do deviate from this schedule adding additional techniques to the instruction where they apply to the situation and experiences of the participants.

