

Crystal Reports for Law Enforcement—Advanced

Curiosity Quest

This course is designed to focus on the most advanced topics in Crystal Reports. Students will learn a variety of ways to tap CAD, RMS and other law enforcement Databases to create meaningful reports.

4 Sections

Advanced Formatting Techniques
Complex Formulas
Using SQL in your Reports
Advanced Cross-tab Formatting

13 Topics

Displaying Summarized Information
Groups and Multiple Summaries
Advanced Conditional Formatting
Modifying Group Name Fields
Parameters in Formulas
Formulas and Null Values
Boolean Formulas for Special Text
SQL Introduction
SQL Commands
SQL Expressions
SQL Designer
Percentages in Cross-Tabs
Grid Line Formatting

in 8 hours...

The student should have some experience with Crystal Reports. He or she should be able to open a report, modify a report, add data using the field explorer, conduct basic formatting operations, create simple formulas and insert cross-tabs.

Curiosity Quest

2010 Crow Canyon Place, Suite 100
San Ramon, California 94583

Phone: 925-824-3122
Fax: 800-306-0585
Email:
ibcurious@curiosityquest.com

Quality Custom Professional Training

Course Outline

Curiosity Quest

12 Exercises

Hour One

Hour Two

Hour Three

Hour Four

Summarization
Multiple Summaries

Conditional Formatting
Group Names

Formulas & Nulls
Formulas & Text

Parameters & Formulas

Hour Five

Hour Six

Hour Seven

Hour Eight

SQL Introduction
SQL Commands

SQL Commands—cont.
SQL Expressions

SQL Expressions—cont.
SQL Designer

Cross-Tab Percentages
Cross-Tab Grid Lines

The actual length of our classes vary with the experience of our students and the number of questions we receive. We can and do deviate from this schedule adding additional techniques to the instruction where they apply to the situation and experiences of the participants.

